Just in time for President's Day, new app teaches kids about the presidents. Download Feb. 17-20 for free! ENCYCLOPEDIABRITANNICAKIDS — Encyclopedia Britannica Kids

After a week of chocolate treats and handmade notes, I bet you thought you were done with the celebrations for a while...Well at least until next week when Fat Tuesday comes around (and that's more of an adult holiday, right?) Actually, Monday is President's Day and many of us will have the blessing of having our kiddos home with us for the day. However, inquiring minds (like my son) want to know, "WHY?"

In celebration of President's Day, GreatApps.com is proud to offer "Britannica Kids: U.S. Presidents," Encyclopedia Britannica's first mobile application for free starting Friday, Feb. 17 through the end of President's Day on Feb. 20. The app, which normally sells for $2.99, teaches young learners an important aspect of U.S. history by taking them on a fun and educational meet and greet with the 44 U.S. Presidents.

Want it go to - Britannica Kids: U.S. Presidents visit <http://greatapps.com/uspresidents>. (Remember it's not free until Feb. 17-Feb 20!)

If you're still not sure you want it to take up any memory, a demo of "Britannica Kids: U.S. Presidents" is available at <http://youtu.be/c3NUEpv-1Vc>.
